

Day 1 Block Carving

- Introduction to the history and craft of Indian block printing.
- Carve your small wooden block from a sketch
- Optional: Submit a custom block design for carving (at an additional cost). Must be sketched on Day 1 or submitted one week before arrival. Hand-carved by our master block wallah, usually ready by Day 5 or 6.

Day 2 Color Mixing & First Prints

- Mix your water-based printing ink
- Choose from studio blocks and start printing
- 2 meters of fabric included

Day 3 – Continue Block Printing

- Practice block repetition, layering, and pattern placement
- 2 meters of fabric included

Day 4 Indigo Dyeing: A Day of Blue

Traditional Bagru-style resist block printing

Dive into traditional Bagru-style resist block printing

Print with mud as a natural resist

Learn to print with mud as a natural resist

Dye with authentic natural indigo powder

Dye with authentic natural indigo powder

Experiment with Shibori and tie-and-dye techniques

Experiment with Shibori and tie-and-dye techniques

A full day dedicated to this ancient and magical process

A full day dedicated to this ancient and magical process

2 meters of fabric included

2 meters of fabric included

Day 5 Custom Block Printing (If Ready)

- Begin printing with your custom-carved block
- If not yet ready, continue with studio designs
- 2 meters of fabric included

Day 6 Final Prints & Wrap-Up

- Complete personal projects and explore final compositions
- Use your custom block if not yet been printed
- 2 meters of fabric included

Workshop Includes:

Hands-on Training.

Master the art of textile block printing, from block carving to intricate fabric printing techniques, guided by experts.

Materials Provided:

Receive 2 meters of fabric per day to work on and take home with you (additional fabric available at extra cost).

Custom Blocks:

Option to create your customized block design (extra cost per block with handling).

Accommodation & Meals:

Stay in a Hotel

Stay in a Hotel located in the same building as our workshop, with breakfast, lunch, and dinner included.

Relax & Recharge:

Start your mornings with yoga on our peaceful rooftop, a hidden gem in the heart of busy Paharganj—perfect for unwinding before a creative day.

Seamless Experience:

Optional pickup and drop-off services in Delhi for added convenience.

Pricing 6 days, 6 nights:

Single Occupancy:

US$750 per person, single room

Double Occupancy:

US$1,300 for two people, sharing a room

Exclusions:

- Laundry service
- Personal drinks
- Extra meals beyond the included package, Tips for Hotel staff

For a detailed itinerary and to personalize your workshop experience, reach out to us via WhatsApp.

Reserve your spot today and immerse yourself in the vibrant world of textile block printing!